MEET THE CAST

MARY HILGENDORF

"THE ALL NIGHT STRUT" is Mary's 4th appearance with DLO, following "SEVEN BRIDES FOR SEVEN BROTHERS", "PUMP BOYS AND DINETTES" and this season's "SINGIN' IN THE RAIN". She doesn't confine her singing to the theatre, but also, is a soloist at Immanuel Lutheran Church and with Citi Lites Band.

In real life, we find her with her husband, Tom and children, William and Kathleen. She is a technician with Dr. John Bromley.

JOE LEWIS

This marks Joe's debut with Danville Light Opera, following his appearance in "BIG RIVER" for Sunshine II this past summer.

He is a soloist with Second Baptist Church and the Genesis Choir, as well as duets with his wife, Carol. The work day world finds him at Illinois Power.

CARLA MODGLIN

"THE ALL NIGHT STRUT" is Carla's 5th DLO show. Reno Sweeney in "ANYTHING GOES" and a vocalist in a Rodgers and Hammerstein review are among her favorite roles. In her "spare time" her husband is Dean Modglin and she teaches Chapter I Reading at East Park School.

JUSTIN VICKERS

Justin is making his 2nd appearance this season with "THE ALL NIGHT STRUT". You may have seen him in DLO's season opener "SINGIN' IN THE RAIN" as Don Lockwood.

Recently, Justin made his directoral debut as DHS with Agatha Christie's "TEN LITTLE INDIANS". Justin has been president of the DHS Theatre Guild for the last two years, and last year played the part of Curly in "OKLAHOMA" for DHS.

This summer Justin will be touring the Midwest performing with the Decatur Park Singers, and in the fall he will be studying Vocal Performance and Theatre Management at the U of I.

KEVIN L. LATOZ

Kevin has performed onstage in DLO's "A DAY IN HOLLYWOOD / A NIGHT IN THE UKRAINE". He's also been the accompanist for "LITTLE SHOP OF HORRORS", "PUMP BOYS AND DINETTES", and "MY ONE AND ONLY". Kevin is also the church pianist at Ridgefarm Friends Church. He works at Hyster Parts Depot and presently is serving as Secretary on the DLO Board.

SUSAN MEYER

Susan is an 18-year veteran of the dancing, choreography field. She spent 15 of those years as owner and instructor of the College Street Dance Center. Many of her students were national talent winners, a number of whom became instructors and choreographers throughout the United States.

A retired teacher since 1989, she now spends more time with her husband, Christopher and family.

She devotes time each summer to the Georgetown Fair Queen Pageant. Her choreographing for DLO began with "GYPSY" in the 1970's. She also choreographed "CABARET" for Sunshine II.

MARY LOU SPAIN

"THE ALL NIGHT STRUT" marks Mary Lou's 21st year with DLO. She tells us that "THE ALL NIGHT STRUT" is a particular challenge to her since it is a complete musical review — no talking!

She is a past president and member of the DLO Board of Directors, as well as secretary of the boards of Central Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and the A.A.R.P. She also tours with one-woman monologues of Mary Todd Lincoln, Eleanor Roosevelt, Queen Esther, Elizabeth — mother of John the Baptist, and Louella Parsons.
