"BELLS ARE RINGING"

Book and Lyrics by Betty Comden & Adolph Green

Music by Jules Styne

After the overture ends, eight dejected girls lament their lack of telephone calls. In reply a vivid advertisement describes the benefits of Susanswerphone, a telephone answering service. This service is run by Sue with the assistance of her cousin Ella Peterson. Ella has a deplorable tendency to get involved in the lives of the customers as she takes and delivers their messages. She has even fallen in love with Jeff Moss, one of her customers whom she has never seen. In the number It's a Perfect Relationship, she describes her feelings. Jeff is a writer who is having trouble getting to work on his next play and Ella is determined to assist him. In the meantime Sue has fallen in love with Sandor, the head of Titanic Records, who sets up a branch office in her establishment. Actually, this is a book-making concern with a fiendishly ingenious code which Sandor describes to his assistants in It's A Simple Little System. The police are already monitoring Susanswerphone, suspecting that it is a front for a vice ring. Ella goes to Jeff's apartment, fires him with enthusiasm, and helps him get started with his new play. In the number Hello, Hello There! she introduces him to the friendliness of people. As their feelings grow warmer he invites her out for the evening and a friend teaches her the cha-cha in the sizzling Mu-Cha-Cha dance. Jeff meets her in Central Park and explains how he has grown to love her. He takes her to a glittering party where Ella sings Drop That Name when she finds herself at a loss for conversation. She feels that she is not up to Jeff's status and sadly steals away as she sings the great ballad The Party's Over. Meanwhile, Sue and Sandor plan a trip abroad as he tries to borrow money from her to cover some racing losses. Two other answering service subscribers whom Ella has also befriended meet the despondent Jeff in a nightclub. Here the floor show consists of songs written by a musical dentist, one of Ella's subscribers. They discover that her good works have helped them all but none realize she is the answering service girl. As the police close in on the bookies the friends set off to find Ella. Just as she has decided to run away she is reunited with Jeff.

OUR DIRECTORS

HAROLD FRENCH (Music Director), received his Bachelor and Masters Degree in Music from Indiana State University. While attending the University he was active in the Sycamore Players, both behind the scene and on stage. While working in the Catlin school system for ten years, Harold directed two community minstrels as well as musicals at the schools. He has also taught instrumental music at North Ridge Junior High. He is presently Instrumental Music Instructor for the Georgetown Elementary Schools. He was assistant director for "South Pacific" and a cast member of several past productions. Harold is a past President of the Light Opera organization (1962-63). He was Music Director for "On A Clear Day You Can See Forever".

ROLAND HARTLEY (Dramatics) is making his debut tonight as the Dramatics Director of a Danville Light Opera Production. Directing is not a new job for him as he was a choreographer for "Li'l Abner", appeared in "Guys and Dolls" and has worked on sets for many of our shows. He has his B.A. from Purdue with a major in English. At Purdue he was principal dancer for numerous shows. At Georgetown High School he taught American and English literature and wrote and directed Christmas shows for children. He also directed all other dramatic productions for the school. He has recently returned from teaching in Kentland, Indiana, where he directed shows there.

BEV ANDERS (Show Coordinator) is our current President and has she got a record. What a past! She started with DLO with the very first production "The Merry Widow" in 1956 as our accompanist and since then has played for more than half our shows. When she wasn't playing piano she's served on other committees: hand props, reservations, advertising, promotions. On her own time she hustles for new members with talent, time and temerity. She was Coordinator for "On A Clear Day You Can See Forever".

THE PLAYERS

DIANA CAUDILL (Ella) has had so many memorable moments in her 24 DLO shows that it would be a Herculean task to list them. She is a comedian, tragedian, musician, actress and above all, a Performer, the kind who makes the audience quit rustling their programs and forget the chairs are uncomfortable. If anyone deserves the Star on the dressing room door, it is our Diana. In "Camelot" she appeared as the deliciously evil sorceress Morgan LeFey who enjoyed "passionate afternoons, gluttonous nights and slovenly mornings." Her comedy sequence with Mordred was one of the highlights of the show. As the dignified Lady Thiang, number one wife in "The King and I", she brought a special poignance to her song, "Something Wonderful". In one year she was transformed from a nun, Sister Margarita in "The Sound of Music" to the comedy lead, Babe, in "Pajama Game". She has also appeared as Cordelia Biddle in the Red Mask show, "The Happiest Millionaire". She is a DLO Board member and has worked on several committees. Diana is a graduate of the University of Illinois and is a speech correctionist for District 118 school system.

DAVE FEAGANS (Jeff) claims Evansville, Indiana as his home town, and attended the Bosse High School there. He has appeared in "Music Man", "Bye, Bye Birdie" and "Out of R.E.A.C.H." written by the Senior Choir Members. He holds a Bachelor of Music Education Degree from the University of Evansville, and was a Clarinet Major and a Piano and Voice Minor. He was in A cappella Choir for 2 years and the Symphonic and Marching Bands for 4 years. At the present time, he teaches strings in the Danville Public School system.

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

NOT A SINGLE MUSIC STUDENT IN OUR AREA WANTS OR NEEDS $300!

Isn't that amazing! With the costs of education constantly rising, you would certainly think that someone would be anxious to receive a check for this amount to use toward his college expenses. But evidently not, for this year DANVILLE LIGHT OPERA received not a single application for its Sycott-Dupree-Schroeder Memorial Scholarship Award!

This would have been the ninth year of our scholarship program. A grant of $300 would have gone to some outstanding music student from Vermilion County or from elsewhere in the surrounding area. Music instructors were invited to submit the names and qualifications of seniors who they felt would be good candidates for this award. Selection of the recipient would have been based upon: (1) the student's desire to further his musical education at the post high school level (major or minor in music); (2) the student's academic record; (3) his musical ability and achievement; (4) the recommendation of his music teacher, based on the student's moral and spiritual attitude, integrity, citizenship, and personality; (5) an audition and interview before our Scholarship Committee.

Notice of DANVILLE LIGHT OPERA's intention to grant the scholarship was sent to every high school principal and every high school music instructor in the county, as well as to many in surrounding areas. Simple one-page application forms accompanied this notice. With nearly 100 forms mailed out, it seems almost unbelievable that not one application was submitted. We cannot explain this total lack of interest in this very worth-while program.

MENTAL HEALTH

This association came into being in the fall of 1968, when a group of concerned citizens formed a steering committee to help pass the Mental Health bill. They recognized that there was a tremendous need for additional funds to keep local agencies going and also to further expand these projects. Some of the projects that the Association has initiated are: (we give financial and volunteer aid) Tele-Care, Inc. geared for providing the elderly citizen assistance, Big - Sister Project, the work with the Y.W.C.A. to give friendly guidance to pre-delinquent girls. Intensive Day Care Center, Volunteers trained by professionals to deal with those who can't cope with their surroundings. Education & Information Centers - set up primarily for the citizens of our county to become aware of mental health and the services we provide and of all the problems of mental health that exist in our county.
