SYNOPSIS OF SCENES

ACT I

- SCENE 1. A forest in the Scottish Highlands, about five A. M. on a May morning.
SCENE 2. The village square in Brigadoon, later same morning.
SCENE 3. The MacLaren House, mid-afternoon.
SCENE 4. Outside Mr. Lundie's House.

ACT II

- SCENE 1. The Glen, inside Brigadoon, later that night.
SCENE 2. A bar in New York City, four months later.
SCENE 3. The forest, same as Scene 1 of Act I, three days later.

Tommy Albright and Jeff Douglas, two modern day New Yorkers on a hunting expedition, inadvertently stumble on Brigadoon, an eighteenth century Scottish village which comes into being for only one day in each century.

They find the villagers happily participating in the celebration of a wedding which should have taken place two centuries earlier.

Hit tunes from the show include: "Almost Like Being in Love," "Down on MacConnachy Square," "The Heather on the Hill," "The Love of My Life" "Come to me, Bend to Me," "There But for You Go I."
