PROFILES

LEONARD “SONNY” DOWNING (Snoopy)

Sonny has been active in Danville Community Theatre for the past ten years. He began with Sunshine II’s production of The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas and eventually appeared in Red Mask and DLO productions as well. Recently retired, he plans to continue with set construction and performing “for as long as they will have me.” He thanks his wonderful family for their encouragement and support, especially his lovely wife Sandy for her patience and understanding.

ERIN HALLS (Patty)

Erin became involved with DLO when she did stage work as a junior high school student. Her first and favorite leading role was Jennie in Shennadoah. She appeared in Anything Goes, Seven Brides for Seven Brothers, and co-directed the music for Bye-Bye Birdie. Erin and her husband George reside in Danville with their four lovely children, Kelly, Dalton, Emily and Rebecca.

GEORGE HALLS (Schroeder)

George has been seen as Caleb in DLO’s Seven Brides for Seven Brothers and Jackson in Pump Boys and Dinettes. George can also be found behind the scenes helping with the sound system. George is on the Board of Directors for Danville Light Opera. He enjoys spending time with his wife, Erin and their four children.

LISA LOVELACE (Lucy)

This is Lisa’s debut performance with Danville Light Opera. Lisa has been active in Red Mask productions, her most recent role being that of Grandma Kurnitz in Lost in Yonkers. She also appeared in Murder in the Magnolias and she won a KATY for her role as Tallyho Thompson in The Wisdom of Eve. Lisa is employed as an attorney with the Public Defender’s Office.

ROBERT McINTIRE (Linus)

Bob first appeared in a DLO production as Father White in The Butler Did it Singing. He has appeared in several other DLO, Red Mask, Gregory Duckett, and Station Theatre productions. He is a current DLO board member. Bob lives in Catlin with his wife Cheryl and daughter Mindy. He is grateful for Cheryl’s support of his theatre activities.

DAVID WOODROW (Charlie Brown)

David will be adding Charlie Brown to his all-time favorite list of roles which include Mr. Bumble in Oliver!, and his role in this past winter’s Rodgers and Hart: A Celebration. David is looking forward to starting his college years this fall at Purdue. He will major in Restaurant/Hotel Management with hopes of someday owning and operating his own dinner theatre.

JENNIFER COLE (Drama/Music Director)

Jennifer is making her adult directorial debut with You’re a Good Man Charlie Brown after nine years of teaching choral music in the Covington Schools. She last appeared on stage as Widow Corney in DLO’s Oliver!. Jennifer has also appeared with Red Mask and Sunshine II, as well as the Danville and Lafayette Symphonies. GO MURRAY STATE!

MARY LOU MAUCK (Rehearsal and Show Pianist)

Mary Lou has been involved with DLO for the past 7 years and this show marks her 12th production as the Show Pianist. She currently serves on the DLO Board of Directors as Treasurer and is a past president. She also is organist at the Rossville Church of Christ. She and her husband John have a daughter and son, both grown, and they also have one grandson.

LINDA PUSEY (Stage Manager)

Linda is happy to be back “behind the scenes” on this production and we are certainly glad to have her back. You may recall Linda’s appearance on stage during Nunsense II. When she is not ruling the backstage area, Linda can be found ruling the roost in the Purchasing Department of Danville Polyclinic. Linda is a member of the DLO Board of Directors.

NANCY HENDERSON (Producer)

Nancy is probably best remembered as Sister Amnesia in Nunsense and Nunsense II. She can also be found behind the scenes in many capacities, with this being the fifth show Nancy has produced for DLO. She is also completing her third term as President and is looking forward to turning the reins over to her successor. Nancy and her husband, Lon, are the parents of two sons, Nathan and Erick.
