Biographies

Amanda Coutant (Shprintze)

Amanda is a sixth grader at Southview Middle School. She started performing in 1992 with DLO's "The Little Mermaid". Since then, she has done several plays through Red Mask's Children Theatre. Her most recent performance was this past summer in DLO's production "The Ransom of Red Chief". Amanda is thrilled to be a part of one of her favorite musicals.

Harmony Lappin (Chava)

Harmony's love of the stage and singing started early in church and school plays leading her to DLO's production of "The Little Mermaid" in 1995. Speech team, choir church youth group and 4-H keep this young lady quite busy. This performance she shares the stage with her mother, Melody, and several other members of her extended family.

Alexa Ehrlich (Bielke)

Alexa has participated in many area productions since her stage debut in DLO's 1996 production of "Annie". She attends school at Liberty Elementary School and has danced with Faye's Dance Company since the age of three. Alexa is excited to add this production to her list of shows and to follow her Papa Bud's footsteps. Alexa's family is very proud of her and love attending her shows.

Nancy Livingston (Hodel)

This is Nancy's first appearance on the DLO stage. She has performed in the Illini Chorus and Illini Women's Chorus while pursuing the undergraduate degree at the University of Illinois. By day, Nancy is an Assistance Public Defender for Vermilion County, and evenings and weekend, she performs her favorite role as mom to her son and two daughters.

Paul Heiser (Music Director)

Paul has an extensive musical background which includes playing several instruments and conducting numerous choirs and bands. However, he is enjoying his first experience as a Musical Director and Conductor of a theatre production. Currently, Paul is working on a Doctorate in Musicology from the U of I. His son, Andrew (2), keeps him in good humor, running around in his diaper singing "To life, to life, L'achaim".

Lisa Lovelace (Yente)

Lisa's last appearance with DLO was last winter as Vera Sander in "Smoke on the Mountain". In June, she won a Katy Award for her performance in the Red Mask Production of "Harvey". During the summer, she portrayed Big Mama in T.F.O. Productions' "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof". Lisa is an attorney with the Danville Law Firm of Gunn & Hickman.

Nancy Henderson (Producer)

DLO patrons will remember Nancy from last season's "Once Upon a Mattress" as Queen Aggravain. Nancy is once again involved with DLO as President of the Board as well as producing the season opener. Her favorite shows include Nunsense & Nunsense II. Nancy would like to thank her husband, Lon, and sons, Nathan and Erick, for sharing her with Danville Light Opera.

Tresa McBride-Stormer (Golde)

This is Tresa's first appearance in a DLO production, but she is no stranger to the stage. She last appeared in the Ford Co. Production of "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat". Other shows include "The Sound of Music" and "Fiddler on the Roof". Tresa would like to thank her family for their support and understanding for all those missed dinners.

Bob McIntire (Lazar Wolf)

This is Bob's tenth production with DLO, in addition to appearances with Red Mask, The Station Theatre, Gregory's Academy, and the Beef House. Bob last appeared as Reverend Jooker in T.F.O. Productions' "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof". Bob, Gaye Garner and Nancy Livingston are proud to represent the Public Defenders' Office. Special thanks to Cheryl and Mindy.

Kathleen Spain-Swiersz (Choreographer)

"Fiddler on the Roof" is just one in a long list of shows with which Kathleen has been involved with since 1974. She enjoys performing & directing as well as "choreographing". Some of Kathleen's favorite shows include "Nunsense" and "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum". Kathleen wants to thank her husband (Mike) and her children (Julia & Madeline) for their encouragement of this hobby.

William Satterfield (Drama Director, Nachum)

Once again gracing the stage (this time swinging a frightening cane), William loans his experience to DLO. Most recently, he directed and produced Tennessee William's "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" for T.F.O. and will direct and produce "Daddy's Dyin'....Who's Got the Will?" for Red Mask.

Tamara Switzer (Tzeitel)

Tamara was last seen in DLO's Production of "Once Upon a Mattress". She has been involved with theatre throughout her life. Her favorite role has been as Danielle/Daniel in a Christian Arts Production of "It's Cool in the Furnace". Tamara would like to thank her family and friends for all their encouragement and support and all those involved with 'Fiddler' for their patience and support.

Robert Scott (Tevye)

Bob has appeared in numerous productions in the Central Illinois area. This summer, he appeared as Brick in T.F.O. Productions' "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" at the Kathryn Randolph Theatre and as Syke Masterson in "Guys & Dolls" at The Beef House. He would like to thank his wife, Donna, for her love and support.

Garrett Taylor (Motel)

Garrett's most recent performance was with Red Mask Children's Theatre as the Ghost in "The Ghost of Canterville Hall". He has been active in various school plays and musicals. Garrett is a member of S.A.D.D. and Student Council Representative of his class at Catlin High School. He would like to thank his family and friends for their support.

Craig Smith (Fyedka)

This production makes 2 "seconds" for Craig. His second DLO show and his second appearance in "Fiddler on the Roof". Craig has appeared in numerous shows such as: "Into the Woods", "The Secret Garden", "Grease", "Mame", "Sweeney Todd", and "Brigadoon". Love to Lori, Michelle, Katrina, and Diane.

Steve Ward (Perchik)

Steve is back in the Danville area after living in the Lone Star State for the past 6 years. Steve began playing the violin at the age of 7 and has been involved in the Ballet since 1996. He has resided in Alaska and worked as Commercial Salmon Fisherman. Please welcome him back to the Danville area.
