SCENE I

In this scene Satan is Director of the Heavenly Choir. He has proven himself to be worthy of the position and God is pleased with him. However, Satan begins to let the praise he has received go to his head and decides that he should now be the one that the choir sings praises to. God is not pleased with this and sees the need to remove Satan from his position.

SCENE III

In this scene we are in a church service. It deals with the fact that even though Satan's fall from God's grace took place a long time ago, he is still trying to persuade others to turn from god and reject his plan of salvation. This scene reveals to us that we are able to overcome the influence of Satan and gave the victory through Jesus.
