Notes from the Other Side

DLO is thrilled to bring Steven Sondheim to Danville. His past successes include such big Broadway hits as Sweeney Todd, Sunday in the Park with George, and Follies. Marry Me a Little is a collection of previously unperformed songs cleverly put together by Craig Lucas, with Sondheim's permission. With not a single word of dialogue spoken between the characters, the mood is set solely by music.

The show tells of three young people in New York City, alone on a Saturday night. A single woman, played by Marsha Williams, facing past and future affairs of the heart, and two men, played by Larry Trimble and Michael Hance, who portray the essence of these affairs create the illusion of being together although they have never met. They all live in the same apartment building, but as a stage convention their apartments have been merged into one allowing the characters to appear in each other's thoughts.

Requiring more than the average musicianship, the cast and our pianist have worked long and hard to make Marry Me a Little an exciting venture into the creative world of Steven Sondheim. We, the cast, the crew, the musicians, have had a great time putting this performance together; we thank all that have been involved with physical or emotional support.

Enjoy the results of our labor; it promises to be a unique experience. Many may see bits of their own lives in the tangled webs we live portrayed on the DLO stage.

Rebecca Majors Quetone — Director — A native of Ridgefarm and a graduate of the University of Oklahoma, Becky has had a wide range of experience in opera and musical theater. She performed a thrilling Mabel for DLO's Pirates of Penzance, and was pianist for Something's Afoot. This is Becky's first time in the Director's seat for DLO and armed with a real admiration and insight into Steven Sondheim's music, she found it was a demanding but a rewarding experience. While living in the Middle East, Becky soloed with the Jerusalem choir. She and her husband Tucker, with their four children, reside in Ridgefarm.

Marsha Williams — This demanding musical role further proves how diverse Marsha's talent and range are. She has played the homely, introverted Agnes in Shadow Box, high-spirited salesclerk Amalia Balash in DLO's She Loves Me, and last summer, the defiant Aldonza in Man of La Mancha. Marsha, who works at Waldenbooks, enjoys foreign films, the Chicago Bears, and spending time with her husband Greg and children Blythe and Ian. She wouldn't mind doing a Sondheim show every season, and though it may seem foolish "... that's a fairy tale to trust."

Larry E. Trimble — This is Larry's first DLO since My Fair Lady and Oklahoma, where he played the role of Will Parker, since 1976. He toured with Mickey Gilley from 1980-1984. He spent the past three years producing outdoor concerts all over the country. Larry has now settled in Danville with Rhonda and two children Soloman and Jacob. He works for WCDV radio in Danville.

Michael J. Hance — Mike has had a roaring good season with DLO this year. He started with Pirates of Penzance as the shy Fredrick, moved into the role of sinister Geoffrey in Something's Afoot, and now into a DLO role with no name. Mike has found this show to be a real challenge, with no dialogue or actual character to relate to. Mike is a senior at Danville High School, served as the Drum Major for the Marching Band, and plans to major in theater in college.

Danville Light Opera's productions are supported in part by a grant from the Illinois Art Council, a state agency, the National Endowment for the Arts and the Danville Area Arts Council.

Mary Lou Mauck - Pianist - Mary Lou comes to DLO because of a great love for music. After seeing DLO's Pirates of Penzance, she said she "... thought she could do that." She has done a marvelous job her first time out, and has found it to be quite an experience. She serves as the organist for Rossville Church of Christ and is a staff auditor at the Palmer Bank. She has two children, both grown and away from the area. She resides on a farm near West Lebanon, Indiana with her husband, John and Irish Setter named Susie.

Alfreda Klingensmith - Stage Manager - "Freda" has an expansive background both on and off the stage, working for DLO and Red Mask. She comes to us equipped to handle any catastrophe, like any good stage manager should! She is employed by NAPA, and lives happily with her two cats in Danville.
