Biographies

Leslie Kuhn Boedicker - Sister Leo

Nunsense Jamboree is Leslie's first show with Danville Light Opera. A recent arrival from Binghamton, NY, she has appeared in such favorites as Man of LaMancha, Pajama Game, and Company. She earned her Master's Degree in Theater from SUNY-Binghamton, has taught theater, and has worked in various capacities on many shows. She looks forward to a long and creative relationship with DLO. She sends special thanks to Mike, Leslie Sr., and Nikki.

Sharon Girard - Sister Wilhelm

Sharon last appeared on stage as Maggie in Twelve Fluid Ounces' Cat on a Hot Tin Roof, and for Danville Light Opera as Princess Winnifred in Once Upon a Mattress. Sharon has also directed Annie and Annie Warbucks for Danville Light Opera. Sharon previously lived in California, where she directed and choreographed many local productions. She is the proud mother of Kira, a fashion student in college in LA.

Nancy Henderson - Sister Amnesia/Producer Nancy is once again appearing as the daffy, but lovable, Sister Amnesia, one of her favorite roles. Her most recent onstage appearance for DLO was in Damn Yankees last spring. She has produced or designed for over 23 DLO shows, and has also appeared onstage with Sunshine II, Ltd., and Kankakee Valley Theater, in addition to directing for DLO. Nancy's 'day' job is as a special education teacher at Liberty school. Nancy thanks husband Lon and sons Nathan and Erick for sharing her with DLO.

Debbie Myers - Music Director

Debbie is honored to be working with David and Jesse again, since working together two summers ago on the Danville Light Opera children's show, Charlotte's Web. She was music director for DLO's Damn Yankees, and has also enjoyed accompanying the Danville High School Contemporaires this year. Debbie currently serves as Minister of Music at Second Church of Christ in Danville.

Jesse Pierce - Choreographer

Jesse returns to Danville Light Opera as choreographer, after appearing onstage for Danville Light Opera in The 1940's Radio Hour this past February. Last spring he directed and choreographed DLO's hit production of Damn Yankees. In addition, Jesse serves as choreographer to several energetic and award winning show choirs, including the North Ridge Redcoats.

Kathleen Spain-Swiersz - Sister Robert Anne Kathleen is reprising the role of that irrepressibly mischievous phys-ed teachin' nun. In addition, she has appeared onstage with Window Repertory Theater, Sunshine II, Ltd., and Red Mask Players. She also enjoys directing drama, music and choreography. Her favorite role, however, is that of Mommy to Julia, 5 and Madeline 3, and loving wife to husband Mike. Kathleen teaches Title I math at Daniel Elementary school. (Thanks for the high-tops Sister Linda. I know you can hear me!)

Garrett Taylor - Father Virgil Trott

Garrett has been active in community musical theater since he was nine. His most recent appearances on the Danville Light Opera stage were as 'The Beast' in the Danville Light Opera children's show Beauty and The Beast last summer, and as Biff in The 1940's Radio Hour in February. Garrett has aspriations of someday working on Broadway. He would like to thank his family and friends for their support.

David Woodrow - Director

David made his theatrical debut in DLO's 1990 production of The Music Man. Since then, he has been active in the Danville area arts community producing, directing, designing, or performing in more than 35 productions. David is currently employed as the Executive Director of the Danville Symphony Orchestra and as Artistic Director of the Beef House Dinner Theater. He also serves as Vice-president of Arts in the Park, Inc. In August, David will direct the BHDT's production of Gypsy.
