STORY OF THE PLAY

The story follows John P. Wintergreen's campaign for President through until his triumphant election on the slogan "Put Love in the White House." As the chairman explained, "What you need for an issue is something that everybody can get excited about and yet something that does not really make any difference." It is decided the candidate shall marry the winner of a beauty contest after proposing to her in every state in the Union. Wintergreen, however, falls in love with the pretty and demure Mary Turner instead. All this causes international complications.

Interwoven in the play are the comic adventures of Alexander Throttlebottom, the new Vice President, seeking recognition.
