Producer's Notes

Pirates, Pirates, Pirates - I dream of them - or rather have nightmares, as everyone involved must. The directors, the cast, the board, - we all have asked ourselves: How are we going to do this? Better yet: Why? As I sat in on rehearsals, I realized why. This show brings goosebumps up on the flesh. The whole group has worked so hard to make every outrageous antic irresistible to the funny bone; the music makes you want to stand up and cheer as alternately the Pirates, the Police, the Major General and his girls take the spotlight to plead their case.

Audience enjoy! I have seen it 15-20 times, and I still love every second.

Ruth Bryant

Dan Miller, Director — Pirates of Penzance is Dan's 4th directing position with D.L.O. having directed the music in the productions of Oh! Coward, I Do, I Do, and Cole. Dan has been involved in DANVILLE LIGHT OPERA since 1974 either on the stage or backstage in the orchestra. He has served 3 terms as President of DANVILLE LIGHT OPERA producing 12 shows for the organization. Away from D.L.O. he is a performer with the Danville Municipal Band, the Danville Symphony and the Danville Woodwind Quintet. He also sits on the Board of Directors of the Danville Area Arts Council (Treasurer), the Danville Municipal Band, the Danville Musician's Ass'n. (Vice-President), Danville American Business Club (AMBUCS), DANVILLE LIGHT OPERA and is the Fund Administrator of the Music Performance Trust. In 1986 Dan was appointed by Governor James Thompson to a 4 year term on the Illinois Arts Council. As an I.A.C. member he serves on the Finance Committee and is Vice-Chair of the Local Arts Agencies Panel and the Partners-In-Purchase Program. He is the Coordinator of Information & Referral Services in the Adult & Developmental Education Division at Danville Area Community College.

Rebecca Majors Quetone — A native of Ridgely and a graduate of the University of Oklahoma with a performance degree in voice, some of her experience and roles in opera and musical theatre include Gwenevere in Camelot, Sazuki in Madame Butterfly and Godspell. While living in the Middle East, she soloed for the Jerusalem choir. She and her husband Tucker along with their 4 children are residing in Ridgely.

Laurel Soderstrom — Laurel is a 1985 graduate of Catlin High School. She has studied dance for 16 years and works as an assistant instructor at Cromwell School of Dance and has been teaching for 7 years. She has attended classes at the National Academy of Arts in Champaign, along with training sessions in Chicago. She is not a newcomer to D.L.O., in the past she has been choreographer for shows such as Where's Charlie and Bye Bye Birdie. In addition to being choreographer in Pirates of Penzance, she is also portraying one of the daughters. Laurel resides in Oakwood with her parents.

Mary Lou Spain — Mary Lou is fond of saying, "Old actors never die, they just become directors!" Despite her 35 years of acting and directing, this is her debut at staging a "light" opera, which she finds much more challenging than a Broadway musical. She has been appearing for the last 2 years in two one-woman shows (Mary Todd Lincoln-The War Years and Mary Todd Lincoln-The End), which she prepared. Mary Lou is a D.L.O. past president, president of the East Prairie Cluster of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ), and member of the Illiana Civil War Historical Society.

Danville Light Opera's productions are supported in part by a grant from the Illinois Art Council, a state agency, the National Endowment for the Arts and the Danville Area Arts Council.

Michael J. Hance — This is Mike's third D.L.O. production. Mike is a senior at Danville High School. He performs in the Singing Vikings and Contemporaies. He is currently serving as drum major for the Marching Band of Vikings. He has been cast in the Illinois High School Theatre production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat.

James Schomburg — This is James' 2nd performance with D.L.O. He was seen 2 years ago in the cabaret-style Cole. He thoroughly enjoys singing, spending much of his energy and talent with the Lincoln Methodist Church as soloist and choir member. James is actively pursuing a part-time career in recording and modeling.

Darrin Deck — This is Darrin's fourth performance on the D.L.O. stage. He appeared in Cole, Where's Charley and Pretzels. He has studied voice with George Rice and acting with Northwestern University's Tom Lenane. In addition to his acting contribution, he also serves on the Board of Directors for D.L.O. and Red Mask Players. Darrin and his wife Cyndi are glad to be involved with D.L.O., Red Mask and Sunshine II as active participants both on and off stage.

Kathleen L. Spain — Pirates of Penzance marks her 14th appearance on the D.L.O. stage. Some of her favorite characters include Carrie Pipperidge in Carousel and Gwenevere in Camelot. Other theatre credits are included in Sunshine II and the Window Repertory Theatre. Kathleen enjoys participating on the production staff, having served as music director and choreographer in past shows. She is a Chapter 1 math teacher for District #118 and enjoys being a free-lance calligrapher.
